Busy Mother.
"Please, Mrs. Shea," said the little girl from the house next door, "mother says you'd be kind enough to come over and take care of baby for a little while."

"Why, certainly," replied Mrs. Shea. "Is your mother ill?"

"No, but she's writing a paper on 'The Proper Care of Infants,' and she's afraid she won't be able to get it done in time to read before the Mothers' Club tomorrow afternoon."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

How the Situation Developed.
"I understand you are now one of the officials of Crimmon Gulch."

"Yes," replied Bronco Bob. "I come in on the prohibition ticket."

"And how is prohibition working out?"

"Fine. We've got it fixed now so that nobody but the particular friends of us authorities can buy or sell a drop."—Washington Star.

Salt to the Sheep.
One of the best means of combating the stomach worm in sheep is to have a plentiful supply of salt mixed with a suitable quantity of a reliable worm powder where the wool producers can get at it at all times. Salt is an essential element in the care of sheep, as it makes the food more palatable and also stimulates the digestive system.

Difficult.

PRESIDENT OUTLINES MEDIATION GROUND

United States is Pledged to Work for Harmony Among Nations.

HIGHER DIPLOMACY IS URGED

Address Before Peace League Interpreted as "Feeler" Looking to Ending of European War.

Washington, D. C.—President Wilson declared here Saturday night before the League to Enforce Peace that the United States was ready to join in any feasible association of nations to preserve the peace of the world against "political ambition and selfish hostility," and in service of "a common order, a common justice and a common peace." He expressed the hope that the terms of peace which end the present war would include such an arrangement.

Outlining suggestions for peace, which the President said he hoped the United States would make when it has the opportunity to do so, he included provision for absolute freedom of the seas, a contention which has been the keystone of all the diplomatic discussions with Germany and Great Britain, and virtual guarantees of territorial integrity and political independence.

Officials interpreted the President's address as a preliminary feeler for peace in Europe. He outlined the conditions on which the United States would move if it made a formal mediation offer with the idea, it was understood, of learning how such suggestions would be received abroad.

"I am sure," said the President, "that the people of the United States would wish their government to move along these lines:

"First—Such a settlement with regard to their own immediate interests as the belligerents may agree upon. We have nothing material of any kind to ask for ourselves and are quite aware that we are in no sense or degree parties to the present quarrel. Our interest is only in peace and its future guarantee.

"Second—An universal association of the nations to maintain the inviolate security of the highway of the seas for the common and unhindered use of all the nations of the world and to prevent any war begun either contrary to treaty covenants or without warning and full submission of the causes to the opinion of the world—a virtual guarantee of territorial integrity and political independence."

The fundamentals of a lasting peace, President Wilson said he believed were:

"First—That every people has a right to choose the sovereignty under which they shall live.

"Like other nations," the President said, "we have ourselves, no doubt, once and again offended against that principle when for a little while controlled by selfish passion, as our franker historians have been honorable enough to admit, but it has become more our rule of life and action.

"Second—That the small states of the world have a right to enjoy the same respect for their sovereignty and for their territorial integrity that great and powerful nations expect and insist upon.

"And, third, that the world has a right to be free from every disturbance of its peace that has its origin in aggression and disregard of the rights of people and nations."

The outstanding lesson of the world war, the President said, had been that the peace of the world must henceforth depend upon "a new and more wholesome diplomacy."

German Fliers Raid Riga.
Berlin—An air raid by a German flying squadron on a Russian aeroplane station at Papenheim on the island of Oesel, in the Gulf of Riga, is announced in an official communication issued by the war office.

"Thursday night a German air squadron again dropped bombs on a Russian aeroplane station at Papenheim, on the island of Oesel. The squadron obtained lucky hits, mostly on the air station itself. In spite of a heavy fire directed against them, all our aeroplanes returned safely."

Villista Cache Is Found.
Field Headquarters near Naniquipa, via wireless to Columbus, N. M.—A Villista cache of machine guns, rifles and ammunition was unearthed Monday in a canyon near here by townspeople of Naniquipa working under American direction. The find, which was officially reported to General J. J. Pershing, expeditionary commander, is regarded as important, not only because of the quantity of armament discovered, but because it reveals a change in the spirit manifested toward the American troops by the natives.

Newspaper Black-Edged.
Athens—"Whoever dreamed to see the Bulgarian flag supplant the Greek flag in Macedonia? Just for this we have maintained mobilization at the cost of the economic ruin of the country."

M. Venizelos, the former premier, thus wrote in the Herald, the Venizelist organ. Feeling runs high over the Bulgarian invasion of Greece. The Herald appeared with a black border as a token of national mourning.

Texas Militiamen Report.
San Antonio, Texas—Rapid decreases in the number of Texas National guardsmen who did not respond to the call to mobilize for service on the border were reported Monday at Fort San Houston. Of the original 116 who were cited for court-martial, only 41 remain who still are liable for trial and it is confidently expected that before the hearing opens next week the number will be reduced to less than a dozen.

Shattering Auto Records.

Shattering all existing records between Portland and Spokane, F. W. Vogler, northwest representative of the Reo line, and H. C. Harris, factory representative of the line, arrived in Spokane Tuesday in a 1916 Reo four cylinder touring car. The actual running time between Portland and Spokane was 20 hours and 59 minutes for a distance slightly in excess of 475 miles, an average speed of almost 23 miles an hour over all kinds of roads.

Not satisfied with making a Portland-Spokane record, Mr. Vogler and Mr. Harris also set marks between Pendleton and Dayton and Colfax and Spokane. They made the run from Pendleton to Dayton in two hours and 38 minutes and drove from Colfax to Spokane in two hours and three minutes.

It is seldom that the trip from Portland to Spokane is attempted by automobile and because it has been made so few times many motorists think it can not be made. According to Mr. Vogler it is as nice a three-day tour as there is in the northwest, the scenery along the route comparing favorably with any in the country.

WIFE TOO ILL TO WORK

IN BED MOST OF TIME

Her Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Indianapolis, Indiana.—"My health was so poor and my constitution so run down that I could not work. I was thin, pale and weak, weighed but 109 pounds and was in bed most of the time. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and five months later I weighed 123 pounds. I do all the housework and washing for eleven and I can truthfully say Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been a godsend to me for I would have been in my grave today but for it. I would tell all women suffering as I was to try your valuable remedy."—Mrs. Wm. GREEN, 232 E. Addison Street, Indianapolis, Indiana.

NEWS ITEMS Of General Interest About Oregon

Secretary Classifies Lands in Whitman National Forest

Portland—Announcement is made by the district forester, George H. Cecil, Portland, Ore., of the classification, by the secretary of Agriculture, of practically all the lands within the boundaries of the Whitman national forest in north eastern Oregon. A net area of approximately 878,218 acres is embraced in this classification, and a small area of 2742 acres is left for examination later.

The Whitman national forest lies in the Blue mountains, and, according to the report, consists mainly of a large body of positive forest land. The report shows that there is a stand of about four billion feet of valuable commercial timber within the forest, fifty per cent of which is western yellow pine. There is also a considerable stand of young timber and inferior species which has a high value for watershed protection for the streams which are used for irrigation outside the national forest.

This forest, it is said, has little agricultural value, and isolated, scattered tracts only could be used for farm purposes. The soil, although fertile, is rocky and shallow, and although records are meager, the rainfall is known to vary from 10 to 40 inches, the snowfall from 20 inches to 30 feet—in the higher altitudes the snow comes as late as mid-June or as early as the last of August; the killing frosts occur every month in the year. The temperature is also known to vary from 30 degrees below zero to 120 above. Practically the entire forest is at elevations from 4000 to 10,000 feet. The topography is rough, characterized by deep, precipitous canyons, and jagged peaks. Although over 70,000 acres of alienated land exist within the forest boundaries, taken up under the homestead and timber and stone acts, it is claimed that most attempts at agriculture have proven failures, and a large per cent of the private lands have either been abandoned or are being held for their timber and grazing value.

In view, therefore, of these circumstances, and with the exception of small isolated tracts, aggregating 2742 acres left for later examination, the secretary has classified the entire area of the Whitman national forest as chiefly valuable for forest purposes and not suited to agriculture or listable under the act of June 11, 1906.

27-Year Wait Is Rewarded.

Marshfield.—George W. Suydam, who has a secret preparation for preserving woods, waited 27 long years, before realizing on his knowledge of chemicals. Nearly 30 years ago Mr. Suydam, who is a resident of Denmark, Curry county, prepared with his process a number of different woods and placed them away with woods of the same variety to see what time would do with each of his keepers.

Now that the woods have been examined and passed upon by experts, it is found that those which were treated 27 years ago are as well preserved as when they were put away, while the wood which was not treated has rotted away and decayed.

L. E. Swan, of Detroit, Mich., hearing of the successful preservative, came to Curry county and, after an investigation, purchased a half interest in the secret process and will finance its exploitation.

Voters Order Irrigation.

Vale.—Land owners in the Malheur valley voted 84 to 11 Saturday to organize an irrigation district, which contemplates construction of a dam at Riverside, holding 200,000 acre-feet of water. Government engineers have reported it to be the most feasible and cheapest project in the West and 25,000 acres of new land will be put under cultivation.

Ten thousand acres are owned by the Oregon Western Colonization company, of St. Paul. Directors are George McLaughlin, R. E. Weant, James Harvey, C. W. Mallett, A. W. Trow, and treasurer, T. W. Halliday.

Stockmen Plan Picnic.
Carlton.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Carlton Board of Trade, there were present a number of breeders of fine stock and a temporary organization of the Carlton Stockmen's Picnic association was made and preliminary arrangements were made to hold the first annual picnic in Carlton on Saturday, June 17. The stockmen and the board of trade are co-operating in arranging for the picnic. There will be barbecued beef, mutton and pork, and the usual picnic dinner provided.

Road Fund Contributed.
Dallas.—In an effort to secure the location of the West Side Pacific Highway through McMinnville, Amity, Perrydale, and Dallas, a joint meeting has been held between the automobile clubs of McMinnville and Dallas. Citizens of Perrydale and vicinity raised $2500 by contribution to improve the road between Perrydale and the Yamhill county line. The Polk County Court met this contribution with an offer of 1600 yards of rock, together with the sum of $2500 to improve the road between Dallas and Perrydale.

Bankers Organize Group.
Ashland.—Organization of Group 4, Oregon State Bankers' association, embracing Jackson, Klamath, Curry, Lake and Josephine counties, was perfected here this week and adjourned after meeting J. W. McCoy, cashier First National Bank of Ashland, chairman; W. H. Gore, of Medford, vice chairman; Marshall Hooper, Grants Pass, secretary and treasurer. Meetings will be held semi-annually.

Washington Fruit Crop Is Late.

Olympia, Wash.—For the whole state of Washington this year's fruit crop is from one week to two weeks later than normal, according to Assistant State Commissioner of Agriculture Morrison. Soft fruits were materially damaged by the hard frost of May 10, 11 and 12. The cold weather of last winter did more damage than the frost of spring, however. Light cherry, raspberry, blackberry and loganberry crops are predicted for Western Washington.

Reports from Yakima county place the apple crop there at 65 per cent of a maximum crop, pears at 55 and peaches at 40 per cent. Cherries are cut down to 18 per cent, prunes and plums 40 and apricots 26. Notwithstanding general damage to Washington apple orchards, it is estimated that increased acreage in bearing will produce more carloads of fruit this year than were shipped last season.

Hogs Sell Dime Higher This Week.

An increase of 10,000 hogs to date this month over 40,000 gain for the year looks as if not all the hog raisers had "absolutely" got out of business yet, says the Portland Live Stock Reporter. The past week wasn't very strong as far as prices were concerned. Barely a nine-cent level was maintained after Monday and from Thursday $8.95 was about the top.

Hog trade opened up briskly on a curtailed receipt basis. Quite a number of hogs were weighed up to packers on arrival, buyers being anxious for their supplies. Packers' first bids were at $8.90; 9c, but as high as $9.00; 10c on an excellent lot was realized later as the market warmed up. Butchers' bid was up to $9.10 on ordinary quality. Bulk of the packer stuff, however, brought $8.95; 9c.

Mohair Season Now Nearly Over.

Portland—The few lots of mohair remaining in the Willamette valley are being taken up at reduced prices. The aggregate quantity remaining unsold is small and should quickly be disposed of.

There is criticism in some quarters of a local buyer who made the announcement that he would pay only 35 cents this week, and charges of manipulation are made. The growers will remember, however, that it was this same buyer who started the advance at the opening of the season, and was responsible, more than anyone else, in getting the farmers more money for their mohair than they ever before received. It is in his privilege to reduce his buying price at this time, when the supply is practically exhausted, if he sees fit.

Sheep in England.
In Great Britain there is one sheep or lamb for each 2.5 acres of the total area. In the 36 farm states in America there is one sheep or lamb for each 21.8 acres.

The British farmer handles his land on an intensive basis and feeds his sheep on forage-crop pastures. Such pastures not only increase the fertility of the land but also free the sheep from many internal parasites contracted through grazing upon permanent pastures. In particular the use of a succession of forage-crop pastures will prevent stomach worms, one of the most prevalent and disastrous scourges of young stock, and will enable the farmer to market by the end of June or the first of July, when market prices are usually the highest, the lambs that were born in the late winter or early spring.

To keep clean and healthy take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They regulate liver, bowels and stomach.

Watchful Waiting.
Tommy had a cold in his head, which confined him to the house, so he was allowed to invite his young friend, Jack, to tea.

Afterward the two small boys commenced playing hide-and-seek, and Tommy rushed into the dining room and asked his father to conceal him. This his father did, behind a big armchair.

Presently in came Jack, and instead of beginning his search, calmly threw himself down on the rug before the fire.

"Come, Jack," said Tommy's father, "aren't you going to look?"

"No fear," was the small boy's calm retort. "I'm waiting till he sniffs!"—London Answers.

RESINOL SPEEDILY HEALS
ITCHING, BURNING, SKINS

Usually resinol ointment, with resinol soap, stops itching at once, quickly and easily heals distressing cases of eczema, rash, ringworm, tetter or similar tormenting skin or scalp eruptions, and clears away pimples, redness, roughness, and dandruff, when other treatments have proven useless. Physicians have prescribed resinol for twenty years, while thousands whose skins have been healed say, "What resinol did for us it will do for you." Try it! All druggists sell resinol soap and resinol ointment.—Adv.
